

countries and therefore the total peace which allays all religious, nationalist and ideological differences would be guaranteed.

G. Would H.M. Government be prepared in principle to enter into negotiations with the representative of one of the old Royal Houses (other than Hohenzollern or Hapsburg), or a person of similar standing.

H. Present military inactivity claimed by our friends to be due to their influence which they will continue to exercise pending further negotiations.