

possible. The Germans were to be warned that Monsieur Daladier would have to be consulted before any discussion could be opened.

It seems that German representatives, possibly including one of the Generals, crossed the frontier on November 10th and met our agent at the frontier. Unfortunately the party appears to have been killed or kidnapped by Germans who came over from the German side of the frontier, but it has been impossible to obtain precise details. It is not certain that the last message summarised above reached the German side.

The <sup>same</sup> Germans have <sup>however</sup> in the last few days contrived to get into touch with us through <sup>another</sup> other channels and the message has <sup>now</sup> been repeated to them, ~~though we cannot be sure that it has reached its destination.~~ al.

16th November, 1939.